This November, an event that promises to be fun, educational and simply delightful awaits you. Nature Society (Singapore) and Cedar Primary School will be holding a Plants Appreciation Day to showcase the rich diversity of flora that we have in Singapore.

If you are a die-hard plant fanatic, come inspire us with your passion. If you enjoy greenery and appreciate its therapeutic effects, come and discover more interesting facts about plants, their economic, medicinal and cultural significance, and much more. Or if you simply want to have a good time celebrating with fellow nature lovers, this event is definitely for you, too!

At Plants Appreciation Day, we have lined up for you many interesting and fun-filled activities, including talks, workshops, plant clinic, plants sale, show-and-tell exhibits and lots of exquisite plant-related merchandise for sale. Read on to see what’s in store especially for you!

For enquiries about Plants Appreciation Day, please email May Li at paday2004@yahoo.com.sg.
